Mr. Otto was unconscious from the time the peddler put his arms around him, and knew nothing of what he did.

BROWNLOW'S WAR.

A Petition From Loyal Men for United States Troops.

[From the Nashville Banner, of Thursday.]

Captain Eli G. Fleming reached this city yesterday from the mountain district, for the purpose of asking General Duncan to send a company of United States regulars to that section, where Brownlow's militia are carrying everything with a high and lawless hand. Our readers have already learned something of the contest between Fleming and Stokes; of the attempt of Stokes' partisans to murder Fleming; of the escort of desperadoes that follow Stokes from place to place; of the exclusion of various counties in the district by Gubernatorial interference, and so on. From Captain Fleming himself we gather many additional facts of an interesting, but deplorable nature.

On reaching Tullahoma day before yesterday from Chattanooga, Captain Fleming found the following letter, signed by several of the most influential citizens of McMinnville:

McMINNVILLE, Tenn., July 15, 1867.

CAPTAIN FLEMING—Dear Sir: We have had a new arrival of militia at our town, today, of sixteen men, commanded by Captain Blackburn, and we think to make yourself safe here, you ought to have, when you come to this place, say thirty regular soldiers, and we think you had better go to Tullahoma and telegraph for them to be sent up immediately to you for your protection.

A petition has been sent from here to Gen. Duncan for soldiers, for the protection of the people of this county.

Yours truly,

Instead of telegraphing, Captain Fleming resolved to come at once to Nashville. He saw General Duncan yesterday, made his request, delivered a petition, and received the reply that there are not regular troops here sufficient to answer the demands made upon them. General Duncan expressed his regret that he was unable to send the protection which is evidently needed by a terror-stricken people. We have no other recourse, and we merely state the case that humane and Christian people at the North may know to what desperate extremities we are being driven by the lawless spirit of Brownlowism throughout this unhappy State. Let it be remembered that Captain Fleming was a Federal officer, that he was a Union man from first to last, and that no man dare impugn his truthfulness or his honor. Through this very section of country he passed at times, as a Federal scout, on the most important missions, bearing the most important communications and performing services for which he was commended by Generals Buell, Rosecrans and Thomas.

Captain Fleming's account of the mountains is a sad one. He says he has encountered many poor farmers who have been compelled to abandon their crops by Brownlow's militia. Besides the regularly enlisted militia, there are roving bands of robbers which pretend to be militia, and profess to hold commissions from the Governor. These wage a merciless, petty persecution, exacting toll and hush money, levying taxes, stealing horses, making arrests, and so on. Captain Fleming found an old man in White county whose sons had been "captured" and whipped into the ranks of the militia, and who was in consequence obliged to abandon his wheat just as it was ready for harvesting.

"Why," asked the Captain, "don't you get a petition to General Cooper, the commander of the militia?"

"If I do that," said the old man, "they will hear of it and burn my house. It is better to let my crops go and save the roof over my head, poor as that is."

On another occasion he found an old widow woman whose only plow horse had been stolen to mount a militiaman, and whose cornfield was lying waste in consequence of her inability to go on with her crop. Again, he has known of bodies of the militia regularly encamped on a farm, burning rails, exacting rations, foraging from the farmer's barn, insulting every one near about, and threatening to burn and destroy the property of those who murmur or "tell tales." Wherever there is a grocery or distillery, there men gather, very often fight among themselves, and two or three have been killed in drunken brawls.

Stokes himself rides about like a lord, with his escort of twenty-eight men. He goes from place to place leisurely, says what he pleases, refuses to divide time, declares that "Brownlow will throw out the registration of every county in the district, if necessary, to secure my election." No Conservative is allowed to pass in certain quarters.

We give these facts briefly. They are corroborated by testimony which we know to be conclusive and reliable. In addition to what Captain Fleming has communicated, we could add a volume from letter after letter that reaches us from this region of Brownlow terrorism. General Duncan has no troops to send there; and we ask the public, the North, the President, General Grant, every one in authority, if this condition of things is to be permitted to go on without the restraint of lawful military inferference.

BROWNLOW IN CINCINNATI.

His Opinion of the Denizens of that City.

We extract the following delicious morsel from a letter written in the spring of 1864, by Wm. G. Brownlow, to his paper, the Knoxville Whig. It is dated at Cincinnati:

"I attended the market this morning and found it equal to the importance of the city. The vegetable market is hard to beat. But what a population! I never beheld such a mixture of well dressed gentlemen, low down Germans, vulgar Irish, dirty Italians, French, Welch, Norwegians, Yankees, negroes, and all the odds and ends of God's creation! A majority of the inhabitants are foreigners; and the women, who are dirty and ugly, do the drudgery. As to colors, I am unable to form any opinion. I have no assurance that one man in ten is a white man. White, brown, red, mixed, claybank, Chickasaws, and all other colors reach the eye. I was struck with the fact that every negro woman I met with a child in her arms or one or more small ones following, carried or accompanied a mulatto—no black children. This is the work of pious Abolitionists or freedom shriekers!

No consideration could induce me to take up my residence in Cincinnati. It is a city of great wealth, trade and commerce, but it is a fast city, and as corrupt as the devil could wish it. It is full of rascals, swindlers and bogus stock dealers.

Even the beggars are thieves and imposters. The streets are full of them.

In soliciting charities, in creating houses of worship, building orphan assylums, or whatsoever this mixed population go at, the thief and impostor stick out.

Tommy Chandler's Challenge to Fight Joe Coburn.

A San Francisco correspondent writes, under date of June 10:

I learn from good authority that by the steamer to-day there goes East an offer on the part of Tommy Chandler to Joe Coburn to fight him for $10,000 (gold) aside, provided Coburn can bring himself down to about Chandler's fighting weight of one hundred and thirty-eight pounds. If this match is made it will be a great mill, and one that will have the attention of all the sporting world. Chandler will be backed in this State to any amount if pitted against a man not much heavier than himself, and he that determines to meet him in the twenty-four foot ring will have a piece of work before him that is not often picked up nowadays. They who know Chandler and understand his powers as a pugilist are anxious to see who the next customer will be; and the man who can whip him can win all the money he wants in this country without trouble. There is a chance, now, for some one anxious for fistic honors, and they who may feel inclined to "try it on" may be sure of having fair play. Tommy is not seeking a fight, except as above; but is willing, I think, to accept a challenge from any one disposed for a mill, provided he is not one of the "heavies."

THE GROWTH OF TENNESSEE.

A Radical Idea of Progress and Growth.

"My colored friends," says a Radical orator, "this great State of Tennessee has been growing and growing, under the beneficent government of Brownlow and the Radical Legislature. The skies were as bright, the air as pure, the waters as limpid before the war as since, but the State is growing and developing grandly. It used to cost only six hundred thousand dollars a year to carry on the State Government, but Brownlow and the Radical Legislature made it cost twice as much last year. This is something to rejoice at, for if over a million dollars was spent by the State Government last year, they mostly came out of the pockets of property holders who ain't loyal to Brownlow, and they went into the pockets of men who are noisy Radicals. Ain't we all free? Who cares if taxes are a little harder on property holders? When we get property we will be willing to pay taxes.

"Again, my colored friends, under the benign influence of your freedom and the efforts of the Radical Legislature, the soil of the State is expanding, and the roads getting longer than they used to be. I remember that when Major W. W. Guy went from Hardeman county to the Legislature at Nashville, the distance was measured, and it was found to be only three hundred and seventy-six miles from Hardeman county to Nashville. Well, my fellow citizens, under Radical rule so great has been the expansion of our noble State that, when Major General W. J. Smith went to the Legislature in 1865, and measured the distance from Hardeman county to Nashville, he swore it was eleven hundred miles. Major General Smith has always been your friend since you had votes. You can't suppose that he would swear that the distance was eleven hundred miles if it had only been three hundred and seventy-six.

"If he had done so and drawn pay for more distance than there was, it would have been roguish, but you don't want to consider him roguish. He drew pay as mileage for eleven hundred miles, and therefore he must conclude that there has been a remarkable expansion of the roads of our State. I, at first, thought Major General Smith might have, by mistake, measured both sides of the road, as he might consider that he was going as much on one side as the other, but twice three hundred and seventy-six miles would only be seven hundred and fifty-two miles, and consequently if he had accidentally measured both sides of the road there would still be three hundred and forty-eight miles unaccounted for. If this overplus, after measuring both sides of the road, had been a little more, I would have concluded that Major General Smith, wishing to do the thing thoroughly, had first measured each side and then the middle of the road, but this won't answer, and therefore I conclude that there must have been remarkable expansions of the roads under Radical rule. As the measurements were made at the same time of the year, it cannot be that the warm weather expanded the roads and lengthened them more at one time than another.

"Warm weather expands everything, but it can not be that the warm weather expanded the roads so far as to make it three times as far from Hardeman county to Nashville on one warm day when Major General Smith went over the roads as it was on the warm day when Major Guy measured the distance. I attribute the increase to remarkable growth of the State under Brownlow and the Radical Legislature. This view of the case is confirmed by the fact that the Radical Representative, Mr. McNair, found it eight hundred miles from Trenton to Nashville, this being twice as far as it ever was before, and Judge Hurst, in 1865, when he went to the Legislature, found that it was one thousand miles from McNairy county to Nashville, which was twice as much as it had been before.

"Either there has been, under Radical governments, a wonderful expansion of all the roads to Nashville or three-fourths of the Radical members of the Legislature have been mean thieves who cheated in mileage. This last I cannot admit, and therefore I must conclude that somehow the roads to Nashville are all getting longer than they used to be. If this continues, and Major General Smith is elected Senator from Shelby county, he may have to travel two or three thousand miles to reach Nashville. If it continues Tennessee may yet extend from the Arctic ocean to the Equator—therefore by all means vote for Brownlow and the Radical ticket."

A NEW SUB-AQUEOUS THEORY.

Symms' Famous Hole to be Rivalled Here

This is an age of wonders and of curious theories, of rare discoveries and of singular speculations. Memphis is not remarkably fruitful in philosophers. Less pedantic than Boston, less wicked than Chicago—it may fairly pass for a specimen of average humanity. It has its Merriam in father Dardis; its Stewart in some one of our merchant princes; its Mott among our doctors; but somehow it, as a general rule, is short of grand theorists, lacking in men who upon a slender base of fact erect stupendous fabrics of speculations, and therefore the advent of such a philosopher is a matter of profound emotion. We are not at liberty at present to give his name to the public, but we present the latest product of his prolific brain.

He was sitting in his office yesterday when a torpedo was exploded at the river for the purpose of breaking up another sunken wreck. The explosion shook the building from foundation to roof. It was not a concussion aerial in its character. No window panes were broken, but the deep foundations were shaken. On this the active, inquiring mind of genius set to work. The steps by which it arrived at its grand idea are worthy of note.

Water is a better conductor of vibrations than the earth. May not water in this case have conveyed the shock?

When an earthquake once shook the land, where Reelfoot lake now stands, the earth sunk down water rose up and now it is there so deep that a boat floats over cypress trees two hundred feet in hight.

A planter was not long since getting his stores on shore from a Mississippi steamer when the earth caved in for a wide space, and what seemed solid earth became the deep flowing current of the river.

At Fort Pillow the water has cut away so deeply under the bank that large pieces of land have gone.

At our wharf the steamboats form a breakwater which checks the surface current and prevents the river cutting the upper part of the bank, but there is scarce a doubt that far below the mighty current unceasingly beating has washed out immense spaces which are filled with the superabundant water of the Mississippi.

This point evolved the grand idea. Who knows but this underground like debouching from the Mississippi may extend a mile back. It probably does much more, or it would not suffice to carry off surplus water. Its extent may never be known, unless some grand earthquake chances to shake down the superincumbent earth, and whole squares of Memphis bluffs sink under the turbid waters. Will this ever happen? Without assuming to decide, we will present, some of these days, a series of practical deductions, evolved from this state of facts by the Memphis philosopher.

No Work to Radical Conspirators Justified.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: When a large company employs only Radical laborers, and will give no work to others, it is not denounced by Radicals as proscription. When a boss mechanic declares that he will turn out of his shop any one of his hands who dares to support a Conservative ticket, no Radical has a word to say against it; but the suggestion that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander, causes a howl against political proscription. Your suggestion that Conservatives who are ostracised by any class of persons, are right, and act as good policy and justice dictates, in refusing to have social or business relations with those who seek to degrade and annoy them, is denounced as something new and very wicked. What reason is there in such denunciations; what justice in such complaints? Every man has a right to employ just whom he pleases. Every working man has a right to work for just whom he pleases. The man who wants work is foolish if he, for trifling causes, objects to work for a person. The employer who wants work done is unwise if he, for petty objections, refuses the services of a competent person; but Conservatives are fully justified in refusing work to any man who seeks to deprive them of political rights, to have them taxed without representation, and who supports those measures and men which are disastrous to the pecuniary interests of Conservatives.

Suppose a colored man should come to a Radical and say: "Mr. ——, I have just come from a secret league, where we have sworn that you shall never have a vote in choosing public officers, or influence in making or administering the laws by which you are governed. I have heartily supported this, and am doing my best to elect to office men who will, by taxation, rob you of your property and in every possible way do you injury, but I want you to give me a job of work." Would the Radical say: "Oh! yes; to refuse you would be wicked proscription, and therefore I will give work to you rather than to a man who wishes to see me treated fairly and doing well"?

When Radicals think that Conservatives, by supporting the doctrine of equal rights to all, white and black, are degrading Radicals and injuring their material interests, they will have a perfect right to refuse to work for Conservatives. At this crisis, every Conservative should refuse to keep in his employ any man who supports Brownlow Radicalism. Not a dollar should be given to enemies. Not a dollar to those who would degrade and ruin the men who mainly support them.

OBSERVER.

WILL COLORED MEN SHOW THEMSELVES FIT TO VOTE?—A great many persons, both Radicals and Conservatives, have opposed the giving colored men the right to vote, because they did not think that as a general rule colored men were fit to vote. They said, "No man is fit to vote who can be led by demagogues to vote for notorious rascals. No man is fit to vote who will not use honorably the right to vote. If the colored men are led by demagogues to vote en masse for men whose mercenary corruption is not denied by anybody, or if they are led to favor corrupt schemes to get illegal votes into the ballot box, they will show that they were not as fit as they should be to vote. Those who urge colored voters to cheat, by getting the votes of minors and of those who live in other States, are no true friends of colored people. They are for their selfish purposes leading colored men to demonstrate their unfitness for the rights granted to them.

City Pound.

Be it ordained by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

SECTION 1. That from and after the passage of this ordinance it shall be unlawful for the owners of dogs, hogs, goats or stock of any kind, (except milch cows) to allow them to run at large throughout the city.

SEC. 2. The Board of Mayor and Aldermen shall elect a pound keeper every year, or as often as may be necessary, whose duty it shall be to establish a pound within the corporate limits of the city, in which he may impound all stock found running at large throughout the city.

SEC. 3. Said pound keeper may charge not exceeding fifty cents a head per day for dogs, goats and hogs, and not exceeding seventy five cents a head per day, if called for by the owner, for all other stock impounded, as a remuneration for his services in establishing and keeping up said pound, and shall feed and take proper care of all animals in said pound.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the pound keeper to keep a book in which he shall enter a description and kind of each animal taken up and enclosed in said pound, the precise time of the day said animals are enclosed; and a list of the description and kind of all animals in said pound, and the time they were placed therein, shall be posted up at each police station every twelve hours. Said book shall at all times be open for the inspection of the Mayor and any member of the Board of Aldermen and Police Commissioners.

SEC. 5. All persons who may have stock or any animal in said pound may, on proving his or her property, and paying the charges, take them away, and the pound keeper shall take the name and residence of every person to whom stock of any kind is delivered, the description of the animal or animals, the time when taken away, and the amount paid by them to the keeper for keeping said animal or animals so taken.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the City Scavenger to destroy all dogs not reclaimed in five days after having been inclosed in said pound, and all other animals not reclaimed in ten days may be sold for the benefit of the city.

SEC. 7. Said pound keeper shall enter into bonds in the sum of five thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties.

SEC. 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances coming in conflict with any of the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Approved June 6, 1867.

W. O. LOFLAND, Mayor.

Paving Streets.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the city of Memphis:

SECTION 1. That there shall be issued City Bonds with interest coupons attached, to the amount of $——, for the purpose of paving the streets and alleys of the city, and which shall be denominated "Paving Bonds."

SEC. 2. A board of three Trustees shall be appointed by the Mayor, with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen, to be called the "Bond Trustees," and who shall be appointed to serve until January, 1869, 1870 and 1871; the term of service of each to be determined by lot, and they shall be eligible to re election.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of said Board of Trustees to receive such portion of the revenue of the city as shall be paid them by the City Treasurer, and to disburse the same in the following manner: 1st. To pay the interest on the bonds herein provided to be issued, as the same becomes due. 2d. To invest any balance on hand in the bonds themselves at their market value, and to return the bonds and coupons thus retired to the City Controller, who shall cancel the same.

SEC. 4. The City Treasurer shall pay over weekly to said Bond Trustees one sixth of his receipts from revenue, beginning on the second Tuesday in January, 1868, and continuing until the sum of $—— shall have been paid.

SEC. 5. Said Trustees shall each enter into bond in the penal sum of $—— for the faithful discharge of the duties prescribed in this ordinance, and shall receive for compensation such salary as shall be allowed by the Board of Aldermen.

SEC. 6. At least five days after the final passage of this ordinance the Mayor shall, by proclamation, order an election to test the sense of the qualified voters of the city of Memphis as to the issuance of the amount of paving bonds provided for by this ordinance in accordance with the provisions of the city charter.

Passed May 31, and approved June 1, 1867.

EDITORIAL

THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD.

SATURDAY, : : : : : : : : : JULY 20, 1867

THE late action of the House of Representatives in excluding the delegation from Kentucky, with a single exception, from the floor of the House, is one of those measures which stands out in bold relief as a landmark on the road the nation is traveling to ruin. It as plainly marks a stage on that road as does the milestone placed for the guidance of the traveler. The mind can scarcely grasp the fact that the loyal State of Kentucky has been excluded from the halls of Congress, simply because the verdict of its people at the late election was given against the party in power. It will be recollected that Kentucky has never been out of the Union—her State Government in the darkest days of the late war stood manfully and squarely up to President LINCOLN, and strengthened his hands by an army of upwards of sixty thousand men, whose heroism in the battle did much toward the consummation which was reached at Appomattox Court House in Virginia. The Commonwealth of Kentucky has most conclusively proved her fealty to the Constitution, but unfortunately for her, her opposition to Radical principles and Radical measures was too openly and manfully expressed, and the consequence is, to-day she stands out in the cold in company with South Carolina and the other States engaged in the rebellion. For this course there is neither precedent or warrant of right, and none but the most intolerant Radical bigot would endeavor to cloak the outrage or excuse the measure. The second section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States declares in so many words that "the House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States." Language as plain as this has led many clear minds to doubt whether there could be a Congress that was not elected by the people of the several States. Be this as it may, it is clearly the design of the Constitution that each State shall be represented, and that no representative shall be excluded, except in some mode pointed out by the Constitution, and for such cause as the protest in case of a contest shall evoke. In the case under consideration there was no protest or contest for the seats by rival candidates. The charge was made, it is true, that the candidates had given utterance to disloyal sentiments. Such was charged on the hustings, and for the first time in the history of the country, irresponsible charges made upon the stump were gravely seized by the House of Representatives for the purpose of wreaking a political vengeance upon a sovereign State, and excluding her lawfully elected delegation from rights guarantied by the Constitution. Disloyalty has officially received a new definition. It is made synonymous with want of affiliation with the doctrines of the Radical party. Loyalty has ceased to be fealty to the principles of the Constitution, and has grown to be, to prove acceptable to Congress, fealty to the desires and measures of the maniac junta which is now driving the country to destruction. Such action as this reveals plainly the purposes and designs of the Radical party, and indicates plainly how fast the country is drifting far away on the sea of passion, without compass or rudder to guide it safely into port.

HAYWOOD county, the home of NUNN, Radical candidate for Congress, has, until lately, been considered, even by Conservatives, the stronghold of BROWNLOW Radical malignancy in West Tennessee. A healthful reaction has set in, and the long diseased patient shows symptoms of recovery. The leperous spots begin to disappear, and a vigorous healthful condition in the entire body politic may soon be expected. The fever and insanity of Radical intolerance, lately so malignant and threatening, has been soothed into the quiet rest of returning reason. Quack political doctors, such as NUNN, HOUCK, WINFIELD, POSTON and WHITELAW, with their infamous and disgusting patent nostrums, have been made to stand aside, for plain honest men, and common sense. The riot which occurred there was too nauseous even for the strong stomachs of wool-dyed Radicals, followed by the appearance of BROWNLOW's militia, their outrages, incendiary and theiving conduct, are most health restoring counter irritants. Decent Radicals could stand it no longer, and the result was a sweeping abandonment of the sinking hulk of BROWNLOW corruption. Those most blatant among the Radicals but a few weeks ago, are now singing in low, murmuring whispers. Confidence of success has given place to doubt, fear and trembling. The Conservatives, emboldened by this cheering reaction, have buckled on their harness, and burnished up their armour, preparatory to a vigorous and defiant contest. A few weeks ago, candidates for legislative offices could not be found; now the very best of Haywood's citizens are ready to enter the race. WM. W. VAUGHAN, a prominent and worthy citizen of Brownsville, a chaste and talented speaker, and a gentleman of irreproachable character, possessing ability and acquirements of the highest order, and of undoubted loyalty, has been brought forward on the Conservative ticket for the State Senate. His great popularity amongst all classes of citizens, his well known probity, high toned sense of honor, and indomitable energy, will not fail to enable him to walk triumphantly over the track. The people of that county have cause to congratulate themselves upon having so worthy and deserving a standard bearer in the field. Let all voters of the county that fear the passage of the obnoxious and ruinous Indemnity bill, increased onerous taxation, exhausting and destructive legislation, extravagant expenditures of the public moneys, and a wicked administration of State affairs generally, come forward and give this gentlemen their hearty support, as the peace, prosperity and well being of our entire people depends on the result. Success is within the power of the Conservative party, and it must be achieved.

Faber's establishment sends out twenty-two millions of lead pencils yearly.

Jacksonville, Florida, is rioting in watermelons at ten cents, and peaches by the cart load.

Among the latest arrivals at Saratoga are two young ladies from Havana, known as the "charms of Cuba," and wearing diamonds to the value of $250,000.

A wealthy citizen of Berlin has applied to the municipality of that town for a site on which to erect a statue to Francis Drake, as the introducer of the potato into Europe, and offers to subscribe 15,000 thalers (£2,250) toward the statute.

There are six Republican papers in Texas, viz.: The Austin Intelligencer, the Messenger, the San Antonio Free Press and Express, Galveston Bulletin and Seguin Journal. The Austin Intelligencer was lately purchased by Morgan C. Hamilton (brother of Governor A. J.) and Major A. H. Longley.

A singular occurrence took place in Raleigh, North Carolina, a few days ago. A man put some water in a large globular jar—such a one as those displayed in druggists' windows—and set it in the sun on a shelf in the piazza, for the purpose of warming it somewhat for ablution. Beneath the jar was spread a newspaper. The rays of the sun, in the course of the morning, were concentrated by it, as by a lens, and the sheet of paper ignited. When discovered, it had burned the paper and scorched the wood.

We regret to learn of the death, at Charleston, on the 14th instant, of James K. Robinson, Esq., one of the most justly esteemed merchants of that city. The Courier, speaking of his death, truly says: He contributed no mean share to our general organism. He was at the time of his death President of the Hibernian Society, which position he had satisfactorily occupied for many years, and the remembrance of the interest and zeal which he displayed in the administration of its affairs, will linger long and welcomely in the hearts of the members of that ancient fraternity.

Whatever else he may be, Mr. Schenck, of Ohio, is not a wit. Yet, as is not at all uncommon, he fancies himself to be one, and makes now and then the most ghastly experiments on the public taste. His resolution of thanks in Congress to Petroleum V. Nasby and the Attorney General, undoubtedly struck him as excessively humorous; but we haven't heard a human being laugh at it yet. It fell on the public more dead than the Opinion on Reconstruction, and was not half as good a joke as Nasby's worst. It was hardly worth while to hold an extra session of Congress to enable Mr. Schenck to attempt to shine in this new character.

Madame Juarez, the wife of the Mexican President, arrived at New Orleans on July 9, with an escort, and is being feted at the Mexican Consul's. Among other distinguished Mexicans of her suite, is Senor Romero, who is staying at the St. Charles Hotel. She was received very quietly, owing to the outburst of popular indignation elicited at the death of Maximilian, not having yet subsided. She will leave in the United States revenue cutter, Wilderness, to-morrow morning, that vessel, notwithstanding all allegations to the contrary, and all insinuations of other pressingly important missions to Vera Cruz, having been detained by an understanding with the State Department until her arrival.

PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

Interesting Debate.

Mr. Eldridge on Rebels.

The Secretary of the Navy submitted a communication, showing that Admirals Farragut and Goldsborough are the only naval officers of fifty-five years' service in the navy.

Mr. Butler rose to a question of privilege, and made allegations regarding prisoners held by the Confederates during the war. A lengthy colloquy ensued.

Mr. Baldwin asked Mr. Eldridge whether he expected the House to take General Ould's statements against the testimony and statements of Union officers? Mr. Eldridge believed General Butler himself would not deny that General Ould was highly an honorable and conscientious man. [Sneering laughter on Republican side.]

Mr. Butler remarked before the war he had thought General Ould a highly conscientious and honorable man, but when a man committed treason he was like a woman fallen from virtue, ready for any crime, and from that hour no one knew where to find him.

Mr. Eldridge reminded Mr. Butler that in making that statement he had forgotten the eminent men who had gone into rebellion, Hancock and Adams and Washington. [Hisses.] Every one of them had been called a rebel, and every one of them had been a rebel, [continued hisses,] until rebellion became a success.

The following was introduced and passed, under a suspension of rules, by a strict party vote:

That the doctrine avowed by the President, that the abrogation of the rebel States binds the nation to pay their debts incurred prior to the rebellion, is at war with the principles of international law, strikes at the national credit, is abhorrent to every sentiment of loyalty, and pleasing only to traitors and their allies and sympathizers, by whose agency alone the Governments of said States were overthrown."

Senate bill conferring on negroes the right of holding office was amended to include the right to serve on a jury, and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

A resolution requesting the President to issue a proclamation directing all proper officers to prevent any invasion of Mexico, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Juarez Repudiated by Gomez, Canales and Ortega.

The Arrest of Santa Anna.

NEW ORLEANS, July 17.

The steamship Heroine, two and a half days from Tampico, arrived here yesterday. She was seized by the United States authorities, and awaits orders from the Treasury Department. Her officers report that Gomez issued a proclamation declaring Tamaulipas a sovereign State. Gomez and Canales were raising troops to capture Tampico. They utterly ignore Juarez, and will proclaim either themselves or Ortega at the head of the Government.

It is said that Santa Anna had been taken out of the steamer Virginia, but the Mexican officer who made the arrest placed his sword under the American flag and walked under instead of over it.

HOUSE.

The Senate bill establishing peace with certain hostile Indian nations was ordered to be printed.

A message was received from the President, in response to the inquiries of the House asking for the correspondence with Minister Campbell relative to the capture and execution of Maximilian, and reported capture and execution of Santa Anna; also, as to what States had ratified the Constitutional Amendment, all of which was referred to the appropriate committees.

The President's veto was then submitted. The Republicans manifested great anxiety for a vote on the conclusion of its reading.

GARDEN AND DAIRY LANDS

For Sale at Great Bargains.

WE offer at private sale, and at very low prices, about ONE HUNDRED ACRES OF LAND belonging to Charles Jones, Esq., in that celebrated Garden Region, on the New Raleigh road, two miles northeast of the city, subdivided into lots of from THREE TO SIX ACRES EACH—some partially or wholly cleared, and some heavily timbered. The great fertility of these lands, and their convenient distance from the city, offer the finest advantages for Market Gardening and Dairies, the neighborhood consisting mostly of those who have grown rich in those departments. They will be sold upon the following very easy terms:

Third Cash, balance in One and Two Years Time, with Interest.

Plans may be seen at our office, and we will be ready at any time to show the lands. Mr. Jones has instructed us to sell, and we shall give to purchasers every inducement that can be offered.

The Buntyn.

HOMESTEAD LANDS

FOR SALE.

WE have the pleasure of placing on the market these very desirable and valuable lands, so well known to the community as the Homestead Tract of the late Geraldus Buntyn, situated at the first station on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, five miles east of the city. The improvements, with about twenty acres of land, have been recently sold to Hume F. Hill, Esq., who now resides upon the premises. The balance of the tract, consisting of about 480 acres, has been laid off in lots varying in size from five to ten acres, fronting upon broad avenues, and laid off so as to secure the greatest amount of comfort. The trains of the Memphis and Charleston railroad afford the opportunity of going in and out of the city, from and to Buntyn's Station, four times a day, so as to make a residence at this point almost as convenient as to live in the city itself.

The choice can now be had of lots wholly or part in original forest, or in field.

IN EXCHANGE FOR CITY PROPERTY.

The executors are directed by the will to sell this place and invest in city property, and we will receive propositions to exchange for either improved or vacant lots in the city.

To all parties looking for a suburban residence, we do not think any property more desirable can be found, in regard to health, convenience or good neighborhood, within the same distance from the city.

The terms will be made very liberal and easy, and the prices low to parties desirous of buying for occupation.

Plans of the subdivision will be shown at our office.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY,

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with regard to the sale of medical preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved efficacious, either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'S medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISMENORRHEA, ANIMEA, GENERAL DEBILITY and POORNESS OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GREEN SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in purifying the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and OBSTRUCTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PHTHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as this syrup is liable to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—Dr. Burin du Buisson's (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine) Digestive Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is always prescribed by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as GASTRITIS, GASTRALGIA, LONG AND LABORIOUS DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND LOINS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervesing mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Suspended Menstruation. It is especially recommended to persons unable to digest the ordinary medicines containing iron.

This celebrated preparation has the advantage to prevent all tendency to constipation, and to contain a certain portion of manganese, considered by the most eminent medical men as indispensable in cases of treatment by ferruginous medicines.

No More Copaiba and Cubebs—Grimault's Capsules and Liquid Extract of Matico Vegetalis.

Where all other medicines have failed, these preparations will always effect a cure. They insure rapid and extraordinary cure of severe, recent and chronic cases of private diseases. They are used in the hospitals of Paris by the celebrated Dr. Ricord, and are found greatly superior to all hitherto known mineral remedies and copaiba and cubebs. The injection is used in recent and capsules in the more chronic cases.

Rockbridge Alum Springs,

VIRGINIA.

THIS favorite and delightful watering place will be open JUNE FIRST. Arrangements are making to render it more than ever attractive to all in quest of recreation, while to the invalid its remarkable medicinal waters hold out new hopes of health.

Its reputation is established as a cure for SCROFULA and most of the Glandular and Cutaneous affections, CHRONIC DIARRHEA and DYSENTERY, DYSPEPSIA, BRONCHITIS, THRUSH, Affections of Kidneys and Bladder, DROPSY and PILES. In all anemic conditions of the system and broken down states of the constitution, Loss of Appetite and general Nervous Prostration, their powers and virtues as a Restorative are without a known rival among the mineral waters of the world. They are especially indicated in the ailments peculiar to the female constitution.

The Springs are distant only eleven hours from Richmond and twelve hours from Washington by rail; in the midst of the grand mountain ranges of Virginia; in the same county with the famous "Natural Bridge," (from which it takes its name,) and near to Lexington, Washington College, and the Military Institute; the home of LEE, and the tomb of JACKSON.

For all particulars of routes, location and properties of the water, see Springs' pamphlet, sent free by mail.

The bottled water and the salts of the water (or "mass.") can at all times be had fresh and genuine from Hegeman & Co., New York; Coleman & Rogers, Baltimore; Purcell, Ladd & Co., Richmond, and A. B. Rucker, Lynchburg, Va.

SECOND DRAWING

OF THE

SOUTHERN ASYLUM LAND CO.

TO BE HELD

AT HERNANDO, MISS, AUGUST, 1867

THE FIRST DRAWING, which took place at Hernando Miss., on the 15th instant, was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. Seventeen thousand dollars worth of tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner:

HERNANDO, MISS., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify, that the above report of the first drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct, and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justness not surpassed by any drawing of which we have any knowledge. The managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.
(Signed) J. B. MORGAN,
W. W. CAMPTON,
ROBERT TEMPLE,
M. MAGEVNEY,
V. A. MERRIWETHER,
JOHN AINSLIE,
Committee.
J. M. HALL, Clerk.

The prizes drawn on this occasion numbered forty seven, and comprised lots in the vicinity of Memphis, Tenn., Corinth, Miss., and Hernando, Miss., deeds to which have been made to the lucky ticket holders. For this, the second Drawing, however, we are able to offer our patrons still more attractive inducements to pierce themselves in our scheme. From a lengthy list of property, much of which has already been advertised to the public, we select the following as our

LIST OF PRIZES

FIRST AND CAPITAL PRIZE.

Colonel M. C. Gallaway's valuable residence, corner of Court and Third streets, Memphis, one block only from the center of the city, and in the vicinity of all the Federal, State and county offices. Lot 37 feet front by 85 deep. Valued at $20,000.

SECOND PRIZE.

A cottage residence of ten rooms, with lot 65x180, in the city of Chicago, Ill., only three quarters of a mile from the heart of the city, and within one block of the street railroad intersecting every part of the city. Valued at $5,000.

THIRD PRIZE.

One residence lot adjoining above property, 25x100 feet; very available for residence and desirably located. Valued at $800.

FOURTH PRIZE.

One residence lot adjoining above property, 25x100 feet. Valued at $800.

FIFTH PRIZE.

One residence lot adjoining above, also 25x100 feet. Valued at $800.

SIXTH PRIZE.

A most valuable manufacturing site with a perpetual fall of 27 feet of water, situated in Winston county, Alabama, with 160 acres of land. Valued at $10,000.

SEVENTH PRIZE.

The Franklin Female Institute, at Holly Springs, Miss.; a handsome and well constructed school building, most eligibly located. This is very desirable property. Valued at $8,000.

EIGHTH PRIZE.

Lot No. 5, in Hays' subdivision, Memphis; size 102x352 feet. A beautiful building lot. Valued at $2,000.

NINTH PRIZE.

Seventy five and a half acres of Woodland near Raleigh, Shelby county, Tennessee, distant from Memphis nine miles. This is very desirable, and an excellent prize. Valued at $2,000.

TENTH PRIZE.

Cottage residence, 3 rooms; lot 120x170 feet, on Borland avenue, near Memphis and Charleston railroad, near corporation line. Valued at $4,000.

Tickets $5 00 Each.

May be had of, or ordered through, any of the Company's agents, at the Central Agency, Memphis, Tenn., or of Colonel James Strain, Hernando, Miss.

Stockholders, Directors and Officers of the Company are prohibited from purchasing or holding tickets in any of the drawings. The Company is simply the medium for the purchase and sale of real estate between property holders and the general public.

TO THE COUNTRY PRESS.—The proprietors of the AVALANCHE are prepared to furnish a fine quality of printing ink, black and colored, at Eastern prices, for CASH. In ordering, let the kind of press used be stated. tf

Damaged dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes must be sold in thirty days, regardless of cost or value, at M Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store. tf

Whose dry goods is that next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store? It is M. Kraus & Co.'s damaged stock, where you can buy dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, etc., at your own price. Must be sold in thirty days. Remember, 213 Main street is the place. tf

Don't forget the old reliable Schwoob Restaurant, No. 18 Adams street, where can be had the best the market can afford. The kitchen and dining room is under the management of the well known caterer, Sam Harmon. Also, a few furnished rooms for rent, with or without board, at a reasonable rate. tf

A rare chance for country merchants and planters to attend the great closing out sale of damaged dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, notions, etc., at M. Kraus & Co.'s, 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store. Must be sold in thirty days. tf

MUNICIPAL COURT.—Stands adjourned until Monday, the 22d instant, which will be motion day.

The cases set for yesterday were disposed of as follows:

Shaw vs Winters; set for Tuesday next.
Wells vs Nose; set for Tuesday next.
Sabler vs Waltering; continued by defendant.
Ramsey & Co vs Powell & Co; judgment for defendant, $220 25.
Hill, receiver, vs Schwoob; judgment by default, $157 70.
Ames, Woodbury et al vs Cross; judgment by default, $165 54.

Cheapest bleached and brown domestics, and boots and shoes at J. H. Lowenstine & Bro's., No. 231 Main street.

Official Drawing of the Missouri State Lottery.

CLASS 439, DRAWN JULY 19, 1867.

CLASS 440, DRAWN JULY 19, 1867.

28, 43, 12, 22, 36, 16, 53, 55, 9, 23, 63, 15, 52.

Drawn twice each day. Over $100,000 in prizes paid each day. Prizes are all cash. Tickets cost from twenty-five cents to twenty dollars. Call or send for circular.

GEO. W. VAN VOAST, Agent,
20 and 52 Jefferson, 22 Gayoso and 6 Water streets.

Must be closed out in thirty days—the damaged stock of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, notions, etc., of M. Kraus & Co.'s, 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store. Come everybody, who want great bargains. tf

RARE CHANCES FOR BARGAINS.—Those who desire to buy all kinds of staple and fancy dry goods cheap, will find no more advantageous place than the store of M. Kraus & Co., No. 213 Main street. The stock of this firm is very large, and is sold at far below New York prices.

Don't fail to look at those cheap white shirts and linen drawers at M. Kraus & Co.'s, 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store. tf

Gentlemen who want cloths, cassimeres, ready-made clothing, shirts, drawers, socks, neck ties, umbrellas and a complete line of gentlemen's furnishing goods, should attend the great closing out sale of damaged goods at M. Kraus & Co.'s, 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store.

Ladies, look at those 10-4 sheetings and Irish linens at M. Kraus & Co.'s, No. 213 Main street, next to Ward & LeGuere's drug store. tf

Gent's fine linen coats at two dollars and fifty cents, beautiful pants at one dollar and seventy-five cents at J. H. Lowenstine & Bro's., No. 231 Main street.

SOMERVILLE BARBECUE.—Let it borne in mind that the grand barbecue at Somerville will take place on the twenty-seventh, and that General Frank P. Blair has consented to address the people on that occasion. There is a general invitation extended, and the hospitalities of Somerville will extend a welcome to all.

The largest and cheapest stock of Irish linens in the city at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street. tf.

THE WORSHAM HOUSE.—For years this house, on the corner of Adams and Main streets, has stood in Memphis as the synonym of all that is excellent in the American hotel. Possessing a cuisine unequalled in the city, everything the market affords is served up in a style unapproachable; the rooms are large, airy and finely furnished, while the attentive waiters are a credit to the establishment, and might well serve as examples for more pretentious establishments. At the head of the Worsham House is Mr. C. B. Galloway, a gentleman well known for his urbanity, his attention to the comforts of his guests, and possessing first class business talent. Under his auspices the Worsham will prove to be in the future, as it has been in the past, a first class hotel, and one which patronized once, will always thereafter be sure to receive your patronage.

Five hundred more of those elegant hoop skirts at only one dollar, at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street. tf

Emmons & Son, No. 12 Jefferson street, have received the Metropolitan Record, New York Clipper, Criminal Zeitung, Irish People, Irish American, Turf, Field and Farm, Freeman's Journal, Beadle's Dime Novel, Godey and Leslie's Magazine for August.

Fine lawns and choice bareges and mozambiques at twenty cents, at J. H. Lowenstine & Bro's., Clay Building.

WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF A REVOLUTION.—No more premature decay of the teeth. Sozodont renders them indestructible. Nay, more, it makes enamel as white as Parian marble, and the breath as odoriferous as "the Sweet South breathing o'er banks of violets." Neither the teeth nor the gums can become diseased, if it is used daily. eod

CRIMINAL COURT.—Stands adjourned until Monday morning, the 22d instant. An investigation on writ of habeas corpus was commenced last evening in the case of Fred. Russer, indicted for the murder of Moses Hecht. The only question involved in the investigation before Judge Hunter at present is simply one of bail. As murder in the first degree has become obsolete in Memphis, no doubt the defendant will be released on bonds.

If you will look at the cheap tables at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street, you will be sure to buy some great bargains. tf

Our stock of dress goods is very large, and must be closed out regardless of cost or value. Give us a call and you will satisfy yourself, at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street. tf

Fine yard wide bleached domestics at fifteen cents a yard, at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street. tf

Hard cases of rheumatism can be cured by using the great Hesperian Liniment. For all external applications its effects are truly wonderful. Price only twenty-five cents. For sale by Ward & LeGuerre, and Nipgen & Reakirt.

WM. D'ŒNCH & Co.,
Proprietors.

Lace points at one fourth their value at Lindauer & Pollock's, 299 Main street. tf

ED. WORSHAM.—This gentleman still keeps up with moving events, and his shelves are stocked with the latest and the best in the news, book and stationery line. Our readers will find on his tables this morning, the Chimney Corner, Literary Album, New York Ledger, Clipper, Sunday Mercury, all the fashion magazines for August, and every thing that can be found in any other news establishment in town.

Good calicoes ten cents, at J. H. Lowenstine & Bros., No. 231 Main street.

Chandler & Co., have now on draught at their store, No. 248 Main street, the best sparkling soda made. Also, the celebrated mineral waters—Vichy, Saratoga, Seltzer, Kissingen, Blue Lick, artesian well water, etc. Give them a call and try them. Mr. B. L. Jones, a clever and courteous gentleman, presides at the fountain, ever ready to cater to the public wants.

Cambric handkerchiefs ten cents, at J. H. Lowenstine & Bros., Clay Building.

ONE DOLLAR FOR A FARM ON A RAILROAD.

Five Dollars for Colonel Gallaway's Residence.

There is not a more beautiful and productive plantation in the South than that, two hundred acres of which, with residence, etc., constitute the capital prize in the September one dollar scheme of the Southern Asylum. There are eight other prizes, eighty acres each, of the same plantation. Then, for the August drawing, Colonel Gallaway's residence is the capital prize. Some one will own it for five dollars. Buy your tickets.

Important and Special Notice.

The following named gentlemen are earnestly and respectfully requested to meet at the Common Law Court room on this day, at four o'clock p.m. Business of vital importance and interest to the welfare of our State and people will be discussed:

ITEMITAS.

John Winn is charged with stealing a pair of pistols from Mr. Arnell.

A mackerel, named Pat Daley, is charged with stealing $15 from a laborer named Mike Hood.

Sam. Jacks was fined $50, yesterday, for beating his wife with a cowhide on the street.

Bill Woodruff is charged with stealing a breech loading rifle from Mr. Hall.

David Hormon is charged with stealing $100 worth of goods from Mr. Allen.

A Mrs. White had her pocket picked of $62 yesterday.

A negro named Sam Graham is charged with shooting at Andrew Peters with intent to kill him.

A horse was stolen on Thursday night from T. E. Radcliff, Esq., near the State Female College.

Henry Goodwin is under arrest for stealing $75 from Mr. Davis. With the money he also, it is alleged, stole a discharge from the army.

Ed. Levi is under arrest for stealing a watch worth $150 from Mr. Hodges, while semi-conscious.

Sam. Reynolds, a negro, is under arrest for forging the name of Mr. Winston to an order for $35.

Sam Horner, a negro, was arrested for stealing $15 and a silver watch from another named Bill Walker.

Why is county scrip fifteen per cent. lower than it was when the present County Commissioners took hold of county affairs?

The amount raised by the Freiligrarth concert was only about sixty dollars after defraying all expenses.

On a public place stands the inscription, "Use Marsden's Pectoral Balm," but to it somebody has added, "and go to Holst's for your coffins."

Lawyers who desire to have cases tried at the next term of the United States Court should not forget that now only two weeks remain for the service of process.

The death of Captain Dan McMahon, at four o'clock yesterday morning, will be widely regretted. When a member of the police force he was active, vigilant, fearless and reliable.

Police scrip is worth from fifty-five to sixty cents on the dollar, city scrip the same, and county scrip seventy-five to eighty, with a downward tendency.

On next Monday night there will be a grand rally of the citizens of the Seventh Ward at the Beale street market house to hear speeches and form a Seventh Ward Etheridge Club.

Two insurance agents on Thursday collected several thousand dollars for several companies having offices in this city and then suddenly left for parts unknown. Some of the victims are after them.

Some time ago we noticed the injury done to Thomas Tally, a colored man, by his being struck with a brick by a colored woman called Fanny. On Thursday Tally died, and an inquest being held yesterday, Fanny has been arrested.

The Hon. J. W. Smith is doing his duty thoroughly in canvassing his district. He will close his public addresses by speaking on the Monday evening before the election in Poplar street market, and on the Tuesday evening before the election in Beale street market.

From June 9, 1866, to July 15, 1867, there were in the county jail 96 prisoners, of whom there were for larceny, 60; murder, 15; embezzlement, 2; forgery, 1; robbery, 5; arson, 1; false pretense, 4; assault and battery, 3; insanity, 1.

Two colored men, last evening, on the extension of Poplar street, got into an altercation about the shooting of John Able. Both drew revolvers and fired. One was hit in the side and one in the groin. The chances are that both will die.

A very well behaved colored man, named John Able, who works for the Hon. Dan Able, had an altercation with another colored man, named Tom Marshall, when the latter drew a pistol and shot Able, who was so badly hurt that he is probably by this time dead.

The work on the building for the new gas company's works will be begun next week. In ten days a large lot of pipes will be here, and on the first of December the lights will be flashing forth to cheer and beautify the streets.

Ex-Alderman Martin Kelly has been appointed General Inspector of Street Pavements, and will see that the Nicolson is put down properly. No better man for this position and duty could have been selected. Mr. Kelly is familiar with public work, and is emphatically a faithful, honest man.

The imprudence that characterizes colored people, and their being huddled together in hovels about the bayous, has, it is said, formed disease; and a medical man states that more colored men have died in Memphis during the last two months than during the entire year 1858. The rate of mortality among them in some sections of the city is appalling.

A gentleman who recently traveled extensively through Fayette county, says the crops never were more promising. Corn, cotton and garden vegetables are alike excellent, and the people, white and black, are coming out for Etheridge. Fayette will give a thousand majority against the Brownlow ticket.

One of the colored voters was yesterday much astonished when told by a gentleman in whom he had great confidence, that he could vote for any person he pleased. "Why, they told me that I must vote the ticket they gave me, and follow the king bee, but if I can vote for any person I please, I is mighty glad, I tell you."

Under the Civil Rights bill a Commissioner was appointed to perfect soldiers' claims. One gentleman by charging fees in every case made fifteen hundred dollars within a very short time, but h never did more for the parties than file a declaration. Subsequently the cases were handed over to a competent attorney who paid a bonus for the job, it being understood that the Bureau was to get half the profit of the speculation.

Candidates who intend to run for office at the ensuing election should remember that their oath, as prescribed by the Franchise act, must be filed before the day of election. The oath of candidates for all State offices should be filed with the Secretary of State. The oath of all candidates for county offices must be filed with the County Clerk. It is supposed that a delivery of the oath of a candidate for a State office to the County Clerk, to be forwarded to the Secretary of State, will answer, but this should not be deferred. Time should be given to have the oath received in season by the Secretary of State.

THE APPROACHING ELECTION.

A Few Items of Interest in Relation to It.

On election day there will be it is said separate and distinct polling places for colored and for white people.

The mission of Mayor Lofland has been successful, and it is understood that there will be a thousand United States soldiers here to preserve the peace on election day. This will be much better than depending upon the police force alone, or upon such fellows as would volunteer under Beaumont.

It is hoped that the precautions taken to prevent bloodshed on election day will be entirely successful. How do Radicals account for the fact that Conservatives are more active and anxious to prevent any breach of the peace than others.

The having distinct and separate voting places for blacks and whites will, it is supposed, interfere somewhat with the challenging of illegal voters, but the members of the County Committees of the two great parties are to meet, it is said, to regulate this.

If there should be any necessity for having additional guardians for the public peace, after the United States soldiers come here, Sheriff Winters can call out a special posse.

It is stated that in one of the colored Union Leagues recently a resolution was passed pledging the members to spend no money with any Conservative if they could avoid doing so. They may work for Conservatives, but not patronize them in return. All their patronage is to be given to Radicals. One business man says that this resolution has, during the last month, made him lose business to the amount of fifteen hundred dollars. This works a good deal like prescription. How horrible it would be if the business man should only employ Conservatives about him.

MEMPHIS MECHANICAL AND AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION.—The attention of the stockholders of the Memphis Mechanical and Agricultural Association is hereby directed to the resolution passed at the meeting of the directors in July 17, 1867, calling for a payment of twenty-five per cent. on the amount of stock subscribed. The call is now due, and is payable at the office of A. D. Gibson, Acting Secretary, No. 269½ Main street.

A REALLY FIRST CLASS HOTEL.—We heartily commend to travelers the St. James Hotel, of New Orleans, Louisiana. Mr. Hurd, one of the proprietors, was a gallant Confederate soldier, and is every way a gentleman. His partner is also a very clever and worthy gentleman. The St. James Hotel sets probably as excellent a table as any first class hotel in the Crescent city. Its rooms, attendance and other features are all unexceptionable.

RADICAL NOMINATING CONVENTION.

T. A. Hamilton Nominated.

The Radicals had a good time last night selecting a candidate in place of Heppy, who prefers the chances in Iowa. "The faithful," to use the words of ex-Collector Hough, "were all there." A pleasant set they were: Bigiew, F. W. Louis, Hudson Marsh, Shaw, the policeman Beaumont, the trebly paid Davis, ex-Provost Marshal Chandler, the pompous Barbour Lewis, Eaton, who sold the thousand negro babies, and perhaps forty others of the same sort, and almost as many blacks.

The feud between the rival factions cropped out. It was the Eatons, Lewis, Chandler & Co. against Hunter, Waldron, Beecher, Beaumont & Co. The Eaton men had made great exertions to fix things, but their calculations were knocked askew.

Barbour Lewis called the meeting to order. Eaton moved that the Hon. F. S. Richards should take the chair. Mr. Richards was about to take the chair, when little Daily said the nays had not been called. Dr. Shaw hoped there would be no objection. Daily withdrew his request.

Mr. Richards, on taking the chair, stated the object of the meeting. He wanted only a good man; he liked good men.

A. T. Hudson and Dr. S. H. Tolles were chosen Secretaries.

Colonel Chandler read a letter from Mr. Hepburn, declining to be longer a candidate. He thanked them much, but didn't want to run.

On motion of Dr. Shaw a committee of five was appointed to select candidates.

Dr. Beecher amended that the nomination should be made viva voce in the Convention.

There was some opposition to Dr. Beecher's amendment, but it was carried.

Nominations were then in order. Dr. Beecher nominated Charles Dalrymple, J. W. Lewis nominated G. P. Ware, Esq., Mr. Beaumont nominated T. A. Hamilton, Esq. Mr. Dalrymple withdrew in favor of Mr. Hamilton. Mr. Daily made a strong speech against Ware. He had been a slaveholder. Had sold infants from their mothers. He never could vote for a man guilty of such cursed and inhuman conduct. [Cheers.] What colored man would ever vote for a man who had been guilty of such inhuman traffic. [Never. Never.]

Harris, the colored speaker, said this was an old charge, five years behind the times. It would not do to stand on old prejudices. Saul of Tarsus was an example of a persecutor becoming a Christian. Mr. Ware was an old citizen; a respectable man; old colored citizens had confidence in him. Why then should such an objection be made by a white stranger. [Ware, Ware.] He knew that Ware would be more acceptable to the colored people than any new man.

Carter, the colored speaker, said many persons knew Thomas Hamilton—a merchant, a gentleman and a man of principle. He had made an oath to Almighty God never to support a man who had worn the rebel uniform, against which he had fought, nor even vote for a man who, by being a slaveholder and slavetrader, had infamously degraded his race. [Tremendous cheers.]

Harris asked was not Hamilton somewhere in the rebel service.

Carter in response said: "He never was in the rebel army that I know of, but I would vote for a rebel infinitely sooner than for a man who had traded in his grandmother, his mother or his wife. [Cheers.]

Beaumont made a speech, explaining why he presented the name of Mr. Hamilton. He had seen unknown men forced on the party by a little clique who overrode the wishes of the majority of the party. He spurned such dictation. He fancied something of this kind in the presentation of Mr. Ware's name. He had long known Mr. Hamilton as a Union man, and a man of principle. The Radical condidates would be elected without talk, and they would be elected by five thousand majority in Shelby county. [Loud cheers.]

Harris responded it was not his wish to force Mr. Ware on the party, but he knew Mr. Ware was the choice of the colored people. [No, No.] The colored people had been cheated before. (This referred to the case of Eaton.) He promised it should not be done again, and therefore he raised the objection.

Mr. Daily wished to reply to one or two points of the gentleman (Harris).

He wanted to throw out every weed in the party until we have only true and noble men.

Harris—"We won't have you then."

Dr. Shaw was rather sorry for this personal discussion. He wanted the chairman to say something.

The speaker said he was a candidate himself, and could not discuss the merits of others. Both were his friends. Both were good men.

Mr. Davis was remarkably sorry for some of the remarks made. Conservatives charged that there was an effort to create ill feeling between races. There were remarks having that character made. Mr. Ware had been a true man to the nation during the war, and had sustained the abolition of slavery. The speaker had traded some in slaves himself, and those he traded in liked it. Mr. Ware was in favor of the abolition of slavery.

A voice—"He had sold his then."

Davis—"I hope this question of slavery will not again be raised. The man who raised it is an enemy to the cause. Mr. Ware was a true man."

A voice—"Was he ever a rebel detective?"

Davis—"I make no attack on Mr. Hamilton; he and Mr. Ware are both my friends."

Rev. Mr. Shaw was called out. "He had no doubt some good men had been slaveholders, but the colored people could not forgive them for having been slaveholders and having traded in slaves."

The speaker showed that Etheridge and Johnson and others had been true Union men, but they could not be supported. He was friendly to Mr. Ware, but could not give him a front seat.

The vote was then taken by division of the house.

A tremendous hubbub ensued; cries of "Hamilton this side!" "Ware this side!" and cheers and clapping.

Mr. Hamilton was declared the choice of the Convention. He was then by a vote made the unanimous candidate.

With three cheers for Mr. Hamilton and three for Governor Brownlow the Convention adjourned.

The meaning of this whole affair was that the Eaton-Lewis faction determined to nominate Ware, but Beaumont broke the slate. After the adjournment there was an active discussion of Hamilton's antecedents, his services to the Confederacy, his suits in the United States Court, and his profound Unionism after the Federal forces came to Memphis.

BIG WARD MEETING.

The Eighth Ward Wide Awake.

The Conservative boys of the Eighth ward had a grand rally at the Poplar street market last night. A big bonfire drew public attention, and the people came from all parts to the meeting.

D. R. Grace called the meeting to order.

W. R. Bostick was called to the chair and Mr. Henry Berger chosen secretary.

The chairman in some neat and appropriate remarks explained that the object of the meeting was to form an Eighth ward Conservative club.

Van A. W. Anderson, Esq., being called out, made an eloquent and telling speech. He discussed the issues of the present canvass and mercilessly dissected the hypocrisy and meanness of the Brownlow Radical party.

At the conclusion of his remarks a committee was appointed to perfect the organization. This committee, after a brief retirement, reported the following officers: Wm. Dean, Esq., President; John Frick, Vice President; M. Cannon, Secretary; H. Berger, Assistant Secretary.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.—James Breirton, J. C. Nolan, John C. Creighton, W. W. Patton, P. Braitch, Benjamin Frame.

Messrs. F. W. Newman, D. R. Grace, W. W. Patton, James Breirton, R. Clarke were appointed a committee of arrangements for another meeting to be held next Thursday night.

The meeting then adjourned, with three cheers for Van Anderson and the Conservative ticket.

Altogether this was a very spirited meeting, and gives evidence that the Eight Ward Conservatives are determined that theirs shall not be the last Ward in the race.

RALLY IN THE FIFTH WARD.

The Ball Set in Motion.

They had good speaking, decided purpose, and entire harmony, but not a large crowd at the Fifth Ward Conservative meeting in the Criminal Court room last night. E. S. Levy was chosen Chairman, and D. Hanly, Secretary.

Alderman T. O. Smith made probably the best speech of his life. It was able, eloquent and convincing. Its masterly exposures of Brownlowism and its defense of Conservative policy and principles were more weighty than even the warmest admirers of Mr. Smith anticipated.

A committee to make arrangements for another meeting and nominate permanent officers for a Fifth Ward Conservative Club, was appointed, and consists of Messrs. M. Burke, Captain Reed, Alderman O'Donnell, P. F. Billow, E. S. Levy and Thurmond.

A resolution was then passed to hold another meeting on this (Saturday) evening, at the same place (the Criminal Court room) when the Fifth Ward Conservative Club will be thoroughly organized.

We are happy to see that the article we penned yesterday on the county indebtedness has had the desired effect of at last calling the attention of the County Commissioners to this subject. The people, whose money they control, have a right to know the exact indebtedness due by the county. The following resolution was introduced in the Board yesterday, by Commissioner White, and was supported by Commissioner Hack—Barbour Lewis, F. W. Louis and Merriman voting against it. We ask why it is that the people shall not have the desired information:

WHEREAS, It is but right that the citizens of this county should know its exact indebtedness, and believing it is far less than is generally imagined, and will result in restoring public confidence in the present and future value of the county warrants. Therefore, for the purpose of arriving at a true statement,

Be it ordered, That the County Trustee, County Clerk and Tax Collector make out immediately the number of every warrant in their hands cancelled and ready to be passed over to the County Trustee, and

Be it further ordered, That the County Clerk make out a list from said statements, the number of absent warrants, and those issued by the former financial agent of the county, his Honor, Judge Hunter, to whom he will present a copy of this order, and that he have affixed to the same the amount for which they were drawn, and those issued by order of the present Board of Commissioners. He shall affix the amount as exhibited by his record and report the number and amount called for by said outstanding warrants to this Board a week from Monday next.

MANY DISEASES CURED.

The French Do Some Things Better than We Do.

There is no reason why a patent medicine may not be just as good for special cases as any other prescription, and the idea that only a doctor can tell the exact dose suited to each case, age and constitution, is absurd; but in this country there is no scientific analysis and professional determination of the value of each patent medicine. Every seller of such articles advertises that each will cure many diseases. He hopes thus to procure his profits. In France every patent medicine has to be subjected to a thorough investigation by scientific and professional men in the employ of the government, and worthless nostrums are not allowed to be sold. This fact is calculated to give confidence in French medical preparations, and the results of numerous cases in which those known as Grimault & Co.'s preparations, sold in this city by G. W. Jones & Co., No. 257 Main street, fully justifies this confidence. Grimault's Guarana has in numerous instances almost instantly cured nervous headaches, neuralgia, diarrhea and dysentery. Its effects are really marvelous. Their other preparations are Dr. Leras' Liquid Phosphate of Iron, for general debility and other diseases of the stomach and blood; Grimault' Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish for scrofula, glandular affections, and other ailments; Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime, for consumption and diseases of the lungs; Dr. Burin du Buisson's Digestive Lozenges for difficult and painful digestion; Ferro Manganic Powder for various diseases of women; and other remedies for other diseases.

LIVELY TIMES AMONG COLORED RADICALS.

What they Think and Do in their Union Leagues.

To secure the votes of the colored population they have been organized into Union Leagues, which, just at this time, are great centers of political agitation. Colored voters are the right bower of the Brownlow party. If they can be made to believe that Brownlow never did defend slavery furiously —never did say negroes were the progeny of apes and baboons—never did hope that emancipation would cause the extinction of the negro race, then they will go for him, and if they all do so, his chances of election are greatly bettered.

When a negro gets a certificate of registration it is put in a sealed envelope and he is told that he must show it to no one—must vote every name on the Radical ticket, and must on the day of election follow the king bee and do exactly as he does. The "king bee" is an entomological way of denominating the head of a squad of Union League blacks.

Politics is a new thing for blacks, and they like novelty. They have formed numerous councils, or branches of the Union League. These councils are the levers of Brownlow—the tools of white demagogues.

Probably no harm would result from councils or general presbyteries or any other kind of meeting if the blacks were left to themselves, but they are not. They are told again and again, by white demagogues who address them, that they have been awfully ill treated; that the Southern people hate and want to injure them; that the opposition to Brownlow is solely because he is the friend of the black man; that the only issue in this contest is between those who want to re-enslave the blacks and those wandering Yankees who come here to get office, and by professing extreme love for negroes. Under such teachings the councils stimulate bad feelings toward Southern white people, and indeed all Conservatives.

A few days since, a Conservative who is widely respected and who is noted for his strict observance of law and order, expressed to an influential colored man the hope that there would be no trouble or bloodshed on election day, and suggested that all whites would be made to refrain on that day from carrying firearms about the polls, if the leading blacks would see that their people did the same. The reply was: "By G—d, the colored people have arms and will carry them, and they remember the riots of May, last year." This incident was subsequently told in a colored council, and elicited enthusiastic applause.

There are colored men who, under the stimulus of bad advice, make foolish and ferocious speeches. How far such speeches may provoke, greatly to be regretted, breaches of the peace, Heaven only knows.

A pleasanter feature of the influence of colored councils, is the unanimity with which they assail the white demagogues who try to use them, but are found out. Thus Barbour Lewis is generally ostracised, and the colored voters will, in spite of party drill, vote square against Eaton. The following circular that has just been sent out to all the colored councils of the State, speaks for itself:

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 17, 1867.

At a meeting of Brownlow Council No. 2, U. L. of A., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That Brownlow Council No. 2, U. L. of A., disapproving of the past administration of John Eaton, Jr., and of his unjust course in procuring his nomination for the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, do hereby indorse and accept Professor John Ogden, of Nashville, Tennessee, the People's candidate, for said office; and

Resolved, That we do earnestly recommend and urge that all Councils of the U. L. of A. in the State of Tennessee will co-operate with us in electing Professor John Ogden to the office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, believing him to be a true friend of the colored people and a zealous advocate of their interests.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Council furnish a copy of these resolutions to each Council in the State.

A. K. DAVIS, President.

W. T. KENNEDY, Secretary.

The above resolutions are approved by Fred. Douglass Council, No. 4.

G. W. BOLIVAR, Secretary.

RIVER NEWS.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, July 20, 1867.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Business on the wharf was extremely dull yesterday, and during the morning the levee was almost deserted, with few boats in port receiving or discharging. The weather was oppressively warm, and was considered one of the hottest days of the season. The river here is receding slowly. At St. Louis a slight rise is reported. The Ohio is falling, with four feet in the canal and five and a half feet on the bars in the lower Ohio. The Arkansas is falling steadily, with seven and a half feet in the channel to Little Rock. White river is declining steadily, with a good stage to Augusta.

ARRIVALS.

" Rubicon, Vicksburg.
" Enterprise, Little Rock.
" Mary Swan, Vicksburg.

BOATS IN PORT.

Gleaner, Dan Able, Marble City, Victor No. 2, Sam. J. Hale, Florence Traber.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Florence Traber arrived last night from Little Rock.

The Gleaner, Captain King, leaves to-day at five p.m., for the Arkansas river, and all way points. The Gleaner is a staunch, No. 1 boat, with superior accommodations. She leaves at five o'clock sharp. John Fenwick presides in the office.

The Victor No. 2, Captain House, is the regular Saturday Haile's Point and bends packet. She leaves at five p.m. Mr. John Gresham is her purser.

The Enterprise, from St. Louis for Little Rock, passed down yesterday. She discharged here 1,500 sacks of corn.

The Marble City, Captain Tschudi, arrived from St. Louis, last evening, with a fair trip. She returns to Cairo and St. Louis to-day, at five p.m.

The City of Cairo from New Orleans for St. Louis, passed up last evening.

The Rubicon, from St. Louis for Vicksburg, passed down last night.

The Dan Able, Captain Lee, leaves the wharf to-day, at five p.m., for Vicksburg.

The Mary Swan came in from Evansville last evening, with a cargo of corn and produce, mostly consigned to Vicksburg. She left for Vicksburg at seven p.m.

The Starlight, a fine packet, in charge of reliable officers, will leave the wharf to-day, at five p.m., for Cincinnati. Mr. William Fields, a clever and obliging gentleman, is her head center.

The Sam. J. Hale is advertised to leave to day for Cincinnati.

A floater was picked up in the river, yesterday, at the foot of Monroe street, by the crew of the General Totten.

The Great Republic will be at the wharf Monday morning, to receive for New Orleans and all intermediate landings, and leave on Monday at five p.m.

The Wabash is at a low water stage, and the United States Marshal at Terra Haute sold the steamer Mason for $2700 to Mr. Whittaker.

There is a slight rise in the Allegheny, which may make water enough to extend navigation as far up as Cincinnati.

On the bars hence to Cincinnati the pilots of the mail boats report fully four and a half feet water, and along the lower Ohio, hence to Evansville, there are five and a half feet water—a good summer stage.

A dispatch from Pittsburg, dated the 17th, says the nights and mornings are cool and pleasant, but the weather is warm during the afternoon. The wharf presented a deserted appearance. The river is at low water mark and is likely to remain so until the fall rains set in.

The New Orleans Crescent, of the 18th, has the following:

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—For the interest of our many steamboat friends, we insert in our river news column the following notice, emanating from the post office department, knowing well that, in this community, the captains and clerks of steamboats are too honorable in their transactions to be guilty of evading the law on the subject. We only publish this information in order that they may guard themselves against receiving any letters except those relating to the cargo, and also stamped envelopes:

WHEREAS, Information has reached the department that steamboats and vessels are constantly bringing to and carrying out of this port letters outside of the mails not inclosed in stamped envelopes, after having been repeatedly notified that such was contrary to law, and subject to heavy penalties. Now, therefore, this is to notify those that it may concern that from and after the first day of August next, special detectives will visit every boat or vessel arriving and departing from this port, and if any such letters be found said boat or vessel will be prosecuted according to law.

Only letters relating solely to the cargo, or articles at the same time conveyed as freight, may be lawfully carried not so inclosed.

By order of the Post office department.

R. W. TALIAFERRO, Postmaster.

Cincinnati exchanges of the 17th say:

Captain John Williams, John N. Shunk and A. Q. Ross, have been appointed a committee, by the Steamboatmen's Association, to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce in securing a passage for large boats around the falls at Louisville, for the completion of the enlargement of the canal. The Silver Cloud No. 2, Captain B. C. Martin, follows the Messenger to New Orleans. The Messenger leaves to-day, sure.

The St. Louis exchanges of the 18th have the following:

There is a swell in the river hear again, but not from any river except the Missouri, and that ditch was on a stand at Lexington yesterday. Down freights for this port and grains for below, are increasing steadily, and matters at the wharf yesterday were right lively. In course of time thirty or fifty steemers, laid up for the present, will be added to the moving fleet. The Republic will leave again for New Orleans to-morrow evening, and will be followed by the Commonwealth. Captain Leathers took the Magenta to the docks. Considerable cash amount will be invested in repairing blemishes and making her quite as pretty as a smiling maid in the morning. The Gallatin will not return from the mountains until fall. She is lying a hundred miles below Benton cutting wood for steamboats, and getting for it sixteen dollars per cord. The Benton bought eleven and a half cords at that price. She wants to be the last boat down of the year. The Guidon contemplates leaving Benton August 10th. The great Commonwealth will load for New Orleans after the Republic. She has been placed in command of Captain J. Haslep. Captain Joseph Lloyd will reside here, taking charge of the shore business of the packet Commonwealth. Captain Ed. Calahan is making a trip on the Rubicon.

A correspondent of the Scientific American furnishes the following plan for constructing the levees on the Mississippi:

"I would make embankments ten feet wide on top, with slopes on both sides, of two feet base to one foot rise, and in hight five or six feet above the highest floods. Before commencing the embankment, for a space of ten feet in width under the center of the bank, about one foot in depth of the porous soil should be stripped off and deposited in the slope. Then a ditch four feet wide and three feet deep should be cut in the center extending the whole length of the embankment. In the center of this ditch I would set up endwise, close together, two-inch planks of sufficient length to reach one foot above high water, securing their edges evenly together by nailing on battens. The embankment may then be carefully made, keeping the more open and porous material in the slopes. The plank thus deposited would effectually stop leaks from muskrats and crawfish, and being entirely covered up and excluded from the air, would last very many years. The outer slope should be protected with stone, where they can be had at reasonable cost, but generally willows, or any shrub of Southern growth, which roots well, may be used with great advantage.

POLAND'S

MAGIC BILIOUS POWDERS!

THIS PREPARATION is the discovery of the Rev J. W. POLAND formerly the Pastor of the Baptist Church in Goffstown, New Hampshire, and a man dearly beloved by that denomination throughout New England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his

MAGIC POWDERS

are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is

THE GREAT LIVER & BILIOUS REMEDY!

Which completely throws in the shade all other discoveries in medicine; and it affords him much gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The MAGIC BILIOUS POWDERS are a Positive Cure for Liver Complaint!

In its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all

BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS!

Excellent for

HEADACHE, CONSTIPATION,
PIMPLES, BLOTCHES,
SALLA OW SKIN, DROWSINESS,
DIZZINESS, HEARTBURN,
PALPITATION.

And, a most wonderful

Cure & Preventive of Fever & Ague!

(We advise all who are troubled with this fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand ready for immediate use.)

Here are a few important particulars:

1st—They are the Great Specific for all Bilious Affections.

2d—They are the only known remedy that will cure Liver Complaint.

3d—They are the only known remedy that will cure Constipation.

4th—The Powders are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure.

5th—They are a mild and pleasant yet the most effectual cathartic known.

6th—They are the cheapest and best medicine extant, as they can be sent by mail to any part of the globe for the price, 50 cents.

FRIDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES

Further Indian Depredations on the Plains.

Maximilian's Death Celebrated in Havana.

The Impeachment Committee in Session.

The Testimony of General Grant.

French Vessels to be Sent to Vera Cruz.

The President's Veto.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Havana advices state that the radical Cubans celebrated the execution of Maximilian by divers toasts to the Monroe doctrine.

The Herald's Leavenworth special says a train was captured last Sunday near Fort Kearney, by the Indians. Bishop Lowry, two priests and six Sisters of Charity accompanied the train, en route to Santa Fe. The men were killed, scalped and shockingly mutilated; the females were carried away captives.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—John Matthews, the actor, has published a card in self justification, in which he says the concluding paragraph of Booth's letter is as follows: "For a long time I have devoted my energies and money to the accomplishment of a certain deed. I have been disappointed. The moment has now arrived when I must change my plans. Many will blame me for what I am about to do; posterity, I am sure, will justify me as a man who loves his country better than God or life. JOHN W. BOOTH."

The Impeachment Committee is still at work. This afternoon General Grant and Colonel Hillier will be called upon for their evidence.

The French Legation is confident that if Juarez prevents the departure of Monsieur Dano, the French Minister, from Mexico, Napoleon will at once order the French men of war in the West Indies and the gulf to proceed to Vera Cruz and demand him. The idea of his being exchanged for Almonte, Maximillian's Minister to France, is ridiculed on the ground that Juarez only wants Almonte to put him to death.

The ram "Stonewall" will leave for Japan early next week.

The President's veto will probably be received to-day.

THE PRIZE RING.

The Approaching Fight Between Jones and McCoole.

The Latter's System of Training.

[From the St. Louis Democrat.]

It is useless to hide our eyes to the fact that preparations are being made, on an extensive scale, for a formidable prize fight somewhere in the vicinity of Cincinnati. Aaron Jones, and Mike McCoole, of St. Louis, are in active training for the fight for the championship, which will probably be one of the best contested on record, and will take place in August.

McCoole is a man of gigantic size and strength; is quick, skillful, plukey, and physically brave. His endurance is wonderful, and the sensation he created in the terrible fight with Davis, will not soon be forgotten. He is about thirty years old, and if nerve and muscle were alone consulted, would be a splendid specimen of manhood. For a time his claim to the championship remained unquestioned; but Aaron Jones, a man of less strength, weight, and size, but of remarkable agility and skill, has stepped forward to dispute with McCoole, the coveted "honor."

In this connection the following from the St. Louis Republican, of Thursday, will be found interesting:

Actuated by a desire to understand the course of training to which a prize fighter submits himself previous to an encounter, we yesterday made a visit to the pleasant establishment kept by Messrs. Miller & Wood at the Abby race track, where McCoole is now being worked into proper fighting trim under the scientific supervision of "Dublin Tricks" and Mike Trainer.

We found the three representatives of the P. R. in good condition and working harmoniously. Dublin Tricks is not a man to waste work, and is bound to get Mike into proper trim by the right time. He believes five or six weeks of hard work, judicious training and proper dieting, etc., are sufficient to bring a man to his metal and highest pitch of strength, and such is the course he is now pursuing with McCoole, who submits to the severe regime with the utmost complacency and good nature.

McCoole has now been in training about two weeks, and already the constant exercise and regular hours are working their due effect. In fact, it would be well if every young man in the community were subjected to the same training, for it is but securing the greatest strength by following the rules of hygiene and reaching the most perfect health. The following is the programme which the champion is at present carrying out at the Abbey:

In the morning he rises at an early hour and takes a walk of six or seven miles before breakfast. On his return he breakfasts on good substantial food, of which probably a beefsteak forms the principal part. After breakfast ensues a rest for an hour or so, and when this is concluded the stalwart champion repairs with his trainer to what may be called his exercising quarters. These are situated on the south side of the race track, under the grand stand, where is a sheltered but well ventilated space, well adapted for the purpose. Here his proceedings are quite varied and interesting, consisting of exercises with dumb bells, pulleys, iron balls, etc.; also buffeting a large bag, heavily stuffed, which is suspended from the roof, for the purpose, we presume, of hardening his hands and giving solidity to his huge fists. The pulley exercises are a very important item in the programme, and are certainly admirably adapted to strengthen the muscles of the legs and arms. The arrangement is very simple. Two strong cords pass over small pulleys fastened about four feet apart to a beam about ten feet from the ground. Each cord is then attached to a bag filled with sand, and weighing about fifty pounds, and the exercise consists in standing ten or fifteen feet away, holding the other end of the cords and raising these bags from the ground and keeping them moving. After the work is concluded in this department the next thing in order is another walk of six miles or so, and then comes dinner, which is of good, nourishing, healthy food, washed down by a glass of good sherry wine. Dinner is taken about one o'clock. Then we have post prandial exercises with dumb bells and pulleys again for an hour or so, and then the refreshment of a good rest and sleep.

In the afternoon a walk of seven or eight miles is taken, which finishes the day's work, with the exception of another slight "stretcher," of a few miles after supper.

The effect of all this hard work is telling on McCoole. He has reduced about 21 pounds since he went into training, his normal weight being about 240 pounds. His condition as to health and strength is splendid. Every ounce of superfluous flesh is being worked off. The muscles of his massive limbs are becoming hard and firm set, and his clear eye, fresh complexion and general appearance indicate a splendid organization, in perfect health and vigor. There is luck in prize fights as in most other things, but, barring out all unlucky accidents and mischances, we think when the great fight comes off it will be very surprising indeed if Mike loses the championship.

Thurlow Weed on Forney.

The New York Commercial Advertiser thus discourseth:

When Colonel Forney recently visited the grave of Shakespeare, at Stratford-on-Avon, he was astonished and delighted at learning from the natives that the immortal bard had heard of the fame and statesmanship of the celebrated editor and proprietor of "two papers, both of them dailies," and meditated a poem in his honor. But before the design could be executed, however, the poet was overtaken by his last illness. This news filled Colonel Forney with the most gushing emotions, and he is now enthusiastic in his praise of the great poet of humanity. Another letter from England, however, contains the gratifying information that the poet Chaucer, hearing of the affair, has generously resolved to carry out Shakespeare's design to celebrate the genius of Colonel Forney in verses worthy of the theme.

A soldier in New Orleans the other day, at great risk to himself of life and limb, saved the lives of two ladies in a carriage, by stopping the runaway team. The soldier was severely injured, and the frightened husband, who was near, was so grateful that he rewarded the brave savior with—a dollar.

Display of Firearms by Negroes.

Speaking of the general display of arms by negroes in South Carolina, the Cheraw Advertiser, after stating that, when the military were in force there, all weapons in possession of white men were seized and confiscated to the Government, remarks: Are not the military commanders bound, and would they not readily discharge their obligations by disarming the negroes, upon complaint and the proof to sustain that complaint. We have no doubt of it. But, should they fail in this important duty, the white citizens have but one course to pursue, and that is, to prepare, the best way they can, for self defense. The seeds of the storm have been sown broadcast over the land, and without the interposition of the law, either State or military, the harvest is not far off.

Disappearance of the Buffalo.

Among other strange changes on the Western plains made by the Pacific railroad, will be its effect on the great buffalo migrations north and south during the spring and autumn months. The immense buffalo trails that sweep from the States of Mexico to the British dominions, and over which countless herds move northward, as the grass begins to grow, and southward as it begins to fade, will be entirely broken up by the railroad and the trains of cars that will constantly be in motion over it. The buffalo, which, like the Indian, has been forever retreating before the advance of the white man, will thus have his last great stamping ground destroyed; and as there is no further retreat possible for him, he will have to prepare for final disappearance from the soil of the United States.

MONETARY.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, July 20, 1867.

The financial market remains quiet and steady, with money ruling close and stringent. The discount market remains firm and unchanged. Gold in New York opened at 140 and closed at 139¾. The market here was quiet, with few transactions, with the premium rates ruling at 138@138½. Silver continues firm and steady, buying at 128@130.

EXCHANGE—Was steady, buying at ¼ cent off, and selling at ¼ cent premium.

CITY SCRIP—The market yesterday was steady, with a limited demand. Brokers were buying at 57@58, and selling at 60@61.

POLICE SCRIP—Was dull and nominal, with a large lot on the market and a small demand. Brokers were not offering over 60@61, and were selling at 62@65.

COMMERCIAL.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE,
SATURDAY, July 20, 1867.

Business in the general markets continues to move along sluggishly, with only a small trade doing in plantation supplies. In flour there was some little inquiry for choice, but that grade is very scarce; in fact, there is none offering from first hands. The other grades remain quotably unchanged. Corn was quiet, but prices firm, especially for white, which is very scarce. Oats are scarce, with a moderate inquiry, and prices firm but unchanged. Bran and hay remain dull, and prices nominal. Mess pork was quiet, but holders still very firm in their asking rates. Bacon was in good jobbing demand, and prices still looking up. Lard is quiet, but prices firm, with a further upward tendency.

COTTON.—The market yesterday morning opened dull and quiet. Offerings were light, undesirable and held at enhanced prices, while the demand was of a very restricted character, and most buyers appeared indisposed to operate at asking figures. The market throughout the day presented a dull appearance. Sales for the day foot up small. Middling at 23@24c; low middling, 21@22c; ordinaries, 15@19c. Receipts for the week, 253 bales; exports, 838 bales; stock on hand, 4406 bales. The Liverpool market was reported firm. Uplands, 10¼d; Orleans, 10½d; sales for the day, 12,000 bales; for the week, 76,000 bales; exports 15,000 bales; to speculators, 20,000 bales, out of which 38,300 are American. The New York market was reported firm. Uplands, 26½c; Orleans, 27c.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

At the wonderful revelations made by the great Astrologist

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

SHE reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, etc., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness inclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, inclosing a small lock of hair. Address,

HOTELS.

Buena Vista Springs,

1867.

THIS justly celebrated Watering Place, situated within five miles (by a good road) of the beautiful city of Russellville, Logan county, Ky., on the Louisville and Memphis railroad, within seven hours' ride of Louisville and fourteen of Memphis, is open for the season for visitors.

Abundant and comfortable conveyance always ready for passengers from Russellville to the Springs, in close connection with the day trains. Passengers leaving Louisville by the morning train can sup at the Springs. Those leaving Memphis by the evening train may have comfortable sleeping cars to Russellville and dine at the Springs next day.

The Hotel building contains nearly fifty family rooms, besides many single chambers. The grounds are highly improved and the most picturesque in the State. Fine hunting and good fishing in the vicinity.

The proprietors pledge themselves that their table shall be unsurpassed in the State, fully maintaining the world wide reputation of Kentucky for abundant and good living, generous and flowing hospitality.

Very favorable terms allowed families desiring to avoid the heat and dust of the cities during the coming summer months. Postoffice, Russellville, Ky.

Insolvent Notice.

THE insolvency of the estate of John Baum, deceased, having been suggested by me to the County Court of Shelby county, Tennessee, all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to file the same, duly authenticated, with the Clerk of said court, on or before the 25th day of November, 1867, or they will be forever barred.
ELENOR BAUM,
Administratrix of John Baum, deceased.

Attachment.

R. E. Poindexter vs. William Jones.

THE plaintiff, on affidavit that the defendant is indebted to him, and has removed out of the county privately, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him, having obtained an original attachment before Ben Sherrod, a Justice of the Peace for Tipton county, State of Tennessee, against the defendant, returnable before me, the said Ben Sherrod, J. P., on the fourth Monday in August next, and the same having been levied on defendant's property. It is ordered that the defendant appear before me at my office at Mason's Depot, on the fourth Monday in August next, to defend said attachment suit, or it will be proceeded with ex parte; it is further ordered, that this notice be published in the Memphis Weekly Avalanche for four successive weeks. Given under my hand this 12th day of July, 1867.
BEN SHERROD,
Justice of the Peace.

It is a mild and delightful Invigorant for delicate Females.

It is a safe Anti-Bilious Alterative and Tonic for all Family purposes.

It is a powerful recuperant after the frame has been debilitated or reduced by sickness.

It is an excellent Appetiser as well as strengthener of the digestive forces.

It is desirable alike as a Corrective and a mild Cathartic.

The body of all similar preparations is common raw Whisky or Alcohol, which contains a large amount of Fusil Oil and other poisonous substances, whilst the body of Edward Wilder's Stomach Bitters is pure Old Bourbon or Copper-distilled Whisky—the best and purest Whisky known or produced. This fact at once recommends and places these Bitters at the head of all other known preparations for all the diseases for which they are recommended, as is testified by numberless certificates from the ablest Medical men and from the Ministry.
